LEXINGTON MEETING ENDS

KENTUCKY ASSOCIATION WILL REAP ESTI-MATED PROFIT OF $10,000.

Much of Surplus to Go Back Into Improv Meeting Free from Scandal and Generally Satisfactory to All Concerned.

Lexington, Ky., May 9.—The Kentucky Association's spring meeting of eleven days came to a successful conclusion this afternoon. The profit was approximately $10,000, the greater portion of which will be spent in improving the course during the summer. The weather and track conditions were untoward on some of the days affording superior cards and in this the association was quite unformate. Otherwise there would have been an unprecedented daily average in the attendance. Presiding Judge Thomas J. Clay, Secretary Garret Wilson, Racing Secretary Will Shelley, starter Mars Cassidy and betting ring superintendent Gene Elrod deserve to be congratulated on the smoothness and dispatch with which affairs in their respective departments were conducted. W. H. Laudeman, the supervisor of the betting appointed by the Kentucky State Racing Commission said:

"I checked up the machines after each race and went over the calculations as they were made and on the morning after made a careful re-check of everything that was done on the day previous. There was no instance where there was anything out of line. If the crews at Louisville and Latonia work as smoothly as they did here, there should be no cause for complaint or suspicion on the part of the public."

There was some rough riding, but inasfar as the ladges were able to ascertain, nothing criminal on work as smoothly as they did here, there should be no cause for complaint or suspicion on the part of the nubile."

There was some rough riding, but inasfar as the hadges were able to ascertain, nothing criminal on the part of any of the riders. There were two or three instances in which the judges made secret incairry, but the only case calling for extended investigation was that of All Red, which was virtually left at the post in the first race yesterday. Starter cassidy charged that jockey Loftus had deliberately judled his horse up. Presiding Judge Clay said this afternoon: "We made a full and complete investigation of the case and through it jockey Loftus is exouerated of any wrongdoing. We have come to the conclusion, supported by the testimony of competent persons who were at the post, that the horse propped as the barrier was released and that his leting left was beyond the control of his rider. We were mable to find that the jockey had an incentive to cause the defeat of the horse. The evidence rollicated conclusively that there were more than ordinarily good reasons why the boy would want to win with All Red."

The weather today was perfect, the track fast, the racing interesting and the attendance fair. John W. May had the distinction of saddling a pair of winners when Sea Cliff won the opening dash and Polly Worth outlasted Star of Danube for the second race. E. R. Bradley's trainer tried to duplicate this feat, but failed. Bell Horse won the handicap for him in a brilliant race against Milton B. and the fast finishing Princess Callaway, but little Johnny Paniels' incompetent handling of Brig cost him the Brewers' Selling Stakes, which was the feature of the card and in which Mockler got up to beat Brig a neck. Brig, much the best, was cut off in the early running, ran around the others and was leading in the stretch when Daniels instead of going on about his business, looked back, took fright at the fast coming Mockler and became so befuddled that he seemed really not to know whether he was riding ille. Most of the owners here will ship their horses to-norrow morning, arriving in Louisville about noon. E. W. Moore today shipped Joe Stein and Bettle sue to Woodbine track, Toronto. They are intended for campaigning on all the pretentious Canadian ourses.

A report of fast work by Free Lance at Louisville ansed quite a flurry among some of the owners here and several big operators tried to back the colt with a view to saving previous wagers made on Worth or The Manager in the future books.

All of the pari-mutuel force and their equipment went to Louisville tonight on a special train, which likewise carried many of the horsemen, jockeys and went to Louisville tonight on a special train, which likewise carried many of the horsemen, jockeys and regulars.

George Ham will leave tomorrow morning with his five horses for Louisville, but will take them to Douglas Park Instead of to Churchill Downs, where has six head, three of them sick. He wants to keep them separated.

LeRoy Alexander, better known as Beau Jangles, a colored exercise boy and groom in the employe of Henderson & Hogan, died in the Good Samaritan Hospital this afternoon from the effects of drinking whiskey after having taken a dose of medicine which was largely composed of morphine.

E. R. Bradley, accompanied by Mrs. Bradley and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Moxley, Jr., of Chicago, will motor over to Louisville tomorrow afternoon.

NOTES OF THE RUNNING TURF ABROAD.

Some further improvements have been made in the Newmarket stands since the last October meetings. The royal stand and boxes have been enlarged and now afford a good view of the paddock and weighing-in enclosure.

Sir Colin, the brother to Sir Martin, one of the unplaced division behind Cylgad in the Fifty-third Biennial Stakes at the Newmarket Craven meeting, was making his debut on an English race course. Of the same rich chestnut color as his near relative, he is a very stylish colt. Though running in blinkers, he displayed much greenness. Going to the post he hung about so much that Maher had to kiek him along, while in the race he never showed out of the ruck.

The first Derby of the season, the Italian "Derby lost he hung about so much that Maher had to kick him along, while in the race he never showed out of the ruck.

The first Derby of the season, the Italian "Derby Reale," $10,000, one mile and a half, was decided at Rome, Thursday, April 11. There were seven trunners, and an exciting race ended in a dead heat between Signor F. Testo's pair, Rembrandt (Langham) and Salvator Rosa (Jacobs), which finished only a head in front of the Besnate Stud's Alceo (Davis). with Sir Rholand's Makufa (Blackburn), a length away, fourth. Signor Testo subsequently elected to walk over with Rembrandt, which thus became the winner. His owner, who won the Derby only last year with Guido Reni, is a young breeder who has formed a stud of excellent broodmares. King George's Stable was in good form at the Newmarket Craven meeting and placed two acceptable races to his credit. Wednesday, April 17, his three-year-old chestnut colt Pintadeau, by Florizel—fulines Hen, defeated Orchestrion, Kosciusko and seven other three-year-olds in the Wood Ditton strakes at a mile. The next day his bay colt Thrace, by Thrush—Loadamia, was victorious in the Three-Year-Old Handicap over the Dewhurst Plate course of seven-eighths of a mile, defeating the crack filly in Enfrosina, which last year beat Kempion. Le Touquet was third and the American-bred Blarney for the strain of the strain of the unplaced ones. ONE OF THE KENTUCKY DERBY CANDIDATES WITH GOOD CHANCE

CATESBY WOODFORD'S SONADA, CH. C, 3, BY STAR SHOOT-JANOWOOD.

Quite a formidable aspirant to Kentucky Derby honors is Mr. Catesby Woodford's good Star Shoot colt, Sonada. He ran a couple of races at Charleston that might well justify one in thinking otherwise, but when brought back to Lexington he mended his ways mightily and, in a fast mile there April 30, showed that the proper thing to do is to disregard his two Charleston races entirely. In his Lexington race he ran a mile in 1:41% over a slow track and easily prevailed over Duval, Sir Blaise and Wheelwright. Since then he has progressed favorably in training and there are good judges of horse form who deem his Derby chance as good as that of any other probable starter.

Sonada did not make his appearance in racing until last fall at Louisville. His first start was in a purse at three-quarters of a mile, for two-year-olds, September 26. This he won in 1:13, with Sir Blaise second, Commoner's Touch third and seven more unplaced, including 6. J. Long's Free Lance. His second race was at the same track October 5. It was a dash of five and a half furlongs and, running the distance in the fast time of 1:05%, he defeated Azyiade by two lengths, with Mack B. Eubanks third and four others unplaced. Then his fortune changed. October 14 he ran second to Lady Lightning in the Iroquois Handicap, at three-quarters, but had up 118 pounds and ran a good race, Ursua Emma, Wheelwright, Worth and Amon finishing behind him. His last race as a two-year-old was in the Fort Thomas Stakes at Latonia, with Froglegs second and Kaiser third. This terminated a creditable two-year-old career, one that will stand critical inspection. His record is now:

THIRTY LEADING MONEY-WINNING OWNERS OF 1912

No striking change has taken place in the list of thirty leading winning owners except that R. Davies and J. N. Camden have acquired positions of prominence. H. G. Bedwell is still far in advance of all competitors in stable earnings, with W. A. Massey second, as was the case a month ago. The great stables of A. Belmont and R. T. Wilson have yet to gain a place in this list, but, such is their wealth of racing material, they are sure to displace some of those now figuring in it before many weeks elapse. The stable records of the thirty leaders are now:

After an exceptionally good gallop of a mile and a half with Danny Maher up, he fell lame and was at once scratched from the race. It was at first feared he had broken down, but it turned out that he had only twisted an ankle without serious injury, and in two gallops at five furlongs, April 19, he went soundly and may be able to go to the post in the $15,000 Great Jubilee Handicap at Kempton Park May 11. My Fellow Wins Selling Handicap for Amos Turney. but Victory Profits Latter Little Because of a Run-up-Track Drying Out Rapidly.

Baltimore, Md., May 9.—Interesting contests were seen at Pimlico this afternoon. Well balanced fields went to the post in a majority of instances and several of the winners were first home by small margins. The Canadian turfman Robert Davies furnished the only winning favorite in First Sight, which beat Captain Elliott a neck in the fifth race. There was a decided improvement in the going, the high winds drying out the track and making the footing fairly good all over.

Capt. E. B. Cassatt scored his first victory of the meeting when Lawsuit won the opening race, a dasn of four and a half furlongs. ARRANGING FOR AUTOS AT LATONIA.

Cincinnati, O., May 9.—The automobile has become a problem at Latonia, and General Manager John Hachmeister has been busy for a few days guring out a plan to handle the motor cars in a satisfactory manner. Last spring there were usually over 300 machines by actual count within the track enclosure and it took a longer time for a machine to get out. The machines were twisted and turned in all directions, and it required some time before enough got clear so the others could make a getaway. With the increased number of machines in this vicinity, and with the interest in the coming meeting greater than ever it is something of a problem to figure out how all the motor cars can be taken care of.

Manager Hachmeister believes that he has a plan that will work out all right and prevent confusion. He is having a much larger space cleared for the purpose and many machines will be taken care of in the plot of ground below the clubhouse just in front of what once was the yearling sales barn. He will have two men in charge of the job of placing the machines and a passageway will be kept open so the machines may move in any direction.

Last year the road to Latonia was rough, especially the Madison pike, which had been torn up for the placing of sewer pipe. The road is again in good condition and the autos going from here will have smooth sailing after the Covington bridge is crossed.

CLOSE FINISHES AT ALAN.

Spokane, Wash., May 9.—The card at Alan today was of the selling variety and the races were marked by some close finishes. The most sensational occurred in the first race when Fleeting Fashion, the leavily backed favorite, got away from the post poorly, was cut off several times, and looked hope-lessly out of the running, but got up to win by a narrow margin.

Stone & Lee, Vancouver horsemen, took the third and fourth races with Sorrowful and Ravaria. The winner of the fourth got away flying and led for the entire distance. Butter Ball, the favorite, met with many mishaps during the running and finished unplaced. Figent and David Warfield took the fifth and sixth races with ease.

The first claim of the season took place today when, J. Tonkin, the owner of Lady Adelaide, secured Star Blue from H. G. Bedwell for $625.

SOFT TRACK AT TORONTO.

Toronto, Ont., May 9.—Philis, the aged London mare, was the only King's Plater to be sent along at Woodbine today. She did a mile in 1:47 on a track soft from last night's rain. She was accompanied by Chief Kee, but the Hamilton Derby winner was too good for her.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Richard Dwyer will do the starting for the British Columbia meetings, which are scheduled to follow the Cocur d'Alene meeting.

Rock Abbey, incorrectly entered as Rock-a-Bye in the Gienmore Steeplechase at Pimlico a few days ago, was named after the birthplace in Ireland of the late Col. Robert Neville, who raised the horse, Rock Abbey was purchased at the Pimlico dispersal sale two years ago by Charles Pfizer of New York.

saie two years ago by Charles Pfizer of New York.

For the meeting of the Watchung Hunt Club, at Plainfield, N. J., tomorrow, elaborate preparations have been made by Rufus Finch, master of the hounds. Among the gentlemen riders who will take part are Fred Alpers, Raymond Belmont, Rufus Finch, Evans Tucker, Harry Tucker, John Tucker, H. L. Bell, P. Stevenson, E. C. Cowdin, 3d., J. S. Casey, W. H. Wildey, J. Park and B. B. Lewis, Word has been received from Fance that Facility.

Casey, W. H. Wildey, J. Park and B. B. Lewis.
Word has been received from France that Fred Williams, who had the distinction of heading the steeplechase jockeys' winning list last season in this country, has devoted practically all of his time since his recent arrival in the French republic to schooling the horses of Charles Kohler. Zeus and other members of the stable trained by S. C. Hildreth, now getting prepared for cross-country racing, are doing famously.

John Brannen, superintendent of the Bimbleo are doing famously prepared for cross-country facing, are doing famously superintendent of the Pimlico course, is quoted as follows: "The rain is no detriment now. It gives the mud horses a chance their nowners have desired. See them run three-quarters in 1:16 and one-half in :48c, bow. Only a few years ago they could have woo in 1:21 after such rains. It is not that the horses are faster, but the tracks are more scientifically worked. With a few hours are more scientifically worked. With a few hours the Chester meeting in England last Tuesday the Chester Vasse of $10,000 for three-year-olds and over, at a mile and a haif, was won by J. B. Joe's four-year-old colt Lycaon. by Cyllene-La Vierze, with Mr. Fairie's three-year-old bay colt Aleono, by Bepoo-Chere Reine, second, and H. P. Whitney's four-year-old chestnut colt All Gold, by Persimmon—Dame d'Or, third. Lycaon ran second to Prince Palatine in the St. Leger last year, and was also third to Sunstar and Stedfast in the Two Thousand sand Guineas.

One of the unique race meetings of the season will be the two days of sport that are to inaugurate the racing of the Washington Riding and Hunt Club. May 16 and 18. This racing will be over the old Benning course, which in more prosperous years of the turf both opened and closed the Eastern racing season. In addition to the hunting set the Army officers are taking a lively interest in the coming meeting and there will be several races framed for Army horses. The fourteen-mile race, which is a feature is a service test that, apart from its pictures one features as a contest, is of real value as a test for the horses.

SEVEN OR MORE FOR DERBY.

Worth Rules Favorite in Ante-Post Betting at Louisville-The Manager Second Choice.

Louisville, Ky., May 9.—In all probability not less than seven and perhaps ten great three-year-olds will face the barrier in the Kentucky Derby Saturday. Inquiry leads to the conclusion that the following named horses may go to the post:

Name. Jockey. Wt.
Worth C. H. Shilling. 117
The Manager T. Koerner 117
Sonada J. Henry 117
Wheelwright J. Henry 117
Free Lance J. Byrne 117
Free Lance G. Peak 117
Guaranola Molesworth 117
Guaranola Molesworth 117
Flamma Loftus 112
Patruche Goose Taruche, Guaranola
The doubtful starters are Patruche, Guaranola

The doubtful starters are Patruche, Guaranoia and Sonada. It is regarded as nearly a certainty that the other seven will go.

The odds quoted here today against the probable starters in the big race are as follows:

tarters in the big race are as follows:

Worth—13 to 5; evens: 1 to 2.

The Manager—3 to 1; 6 to 5; 3 to 5.

Wheelwright—4 to 1; 8 to 5; 4 to 5.

Free Lance—8 to 1; 3 to 1; 8 to 5.

Flamma—15 to 1; 6 to 1; 3 to 1.

Sonada—15 to 1; 6 to 1; 3 to 1.

Sir Blaise—20 to 1; 8 to 1; 4 to 1.

Duval—20 to 1; 8 to 1; 4 to 1.

Guaranoia—30 to 1; 12 to 1; 6 to 1.

Patruche—30 to 1; 12 to 1; 6 to 1.

Datruche—30 to 1; 12 to 1; 6 to 1.

The Derby candidate, Flamma, the only filly likely to start in the big race, has had her final trial. She was sent a mile and three-eighths, an eighth farther than the berby route, and she covered this distance in 2:25%. Her fractional time was: Eighth in 12%; quarter in 25%; three-eighths in 38%; half in 51½; five-eighths in 1:64%; three-quarters in 1:17%; seven-eighths in 1:30%; mile in 1:43%; mile and an eighth in 1:57%, and the mile and a quarter, the Derby route, in 2:11%. She did the work impressively and she fancies the route.

There was considerable fast work at the Downs this morning by the many noted horses now in training there. The best mile was by High Private, he running the distance in 1:41%. His fractional time was: 12, 23%; 35%, 48%, 1:02%, 1:16%, 1:29%. This noted performer never looked better and appears to be as good as at any time in his brilliant career. Other work-outs were

The famous gelding Al Muller, owned by J. R. Wainwright, which was taken sick with pneumonta at the Downs several days ago, died this morning from fever and weakness. He was one of the veterans of the turf, and during his career won nearly forty races. Mr. Wainwright has owned him since he was a three-year-old. He was first raced for the Florida turfman, Frank Clarkson, by trainer W. H. Fizer.
W. M. Wallace has repurchased Duquesne from F. D. Weir. Mr. Weir claimed him out of a selling race at Lexington.
J. O. Keene brought seven horses to the Downs for J. N. Camden. The string is headed by the Derby candidate Wheelwright and others of note in the stable are Merode and Helios, the latter being the winner of the recent Breeder's Futurity. The remaining four in the barn are maiden two-year-olds. Free Lance came out of a sensational Derby trial yesterday as he has in every trial he has had this spring and his mile and a quarter in better than 2:08 is the talk of the Downs today. Some of the watches caught the colt as fast as 2:07½ and made the mile in 1:33½. It is conceded to be the greatest Derby trial ever run at this track, as the course was surely a second and a half to two seconds slow when the son of Alvescot did his trial Wednesday afternoon. Trainer Peter Coyne is well pleased with Free Lance's work and was all smiles today.
H. C. Hallenbeck, the owner of Worth, has arrived here and will remain throughout the coming meeting. Other turfmen of note already here include the veteran trainer Charles Hughes, and F. E. Driver, the owner of the Oaks candidate, Floral Day, Wayne Joplin has decided to rettre his noted mare Parkview and will ship her to central Kentucky in in few days. He will mate her this season with Star Shoot.

Parkylew and will ship her to central Kentucky in in few days. He will mate her this season with Star Shoot.

The following prominent turfmen and leaders in society have reserved boxes at the Downs for Derby day: Gov. James B. McCreary; Mayor W. O. Head; Charles F. Grainger, J. H. Caperton, Lawrence Jones, A. J. Carroll, J. N. Cauden, A. P. Hunphrey, Jr., Col. W. B. Haldeman, R. F. Carman, B. Bernheim, D. Keller, Col. W. E. Applegate, Charles F. Price, Davis Brown, Price McKinney, E. R. Bradley, Col. M. J. Winn, H. C. Hallenbeck, Charles F. Price, Col. E. F. Clay, H. L. Ott, J. S. Ward, Joseph C. Yenger, Col. J. B. Thompson, Carter B. Semple, H. P. Headley, S. A. Sapinsky, C. M. Sears, Bert Humler, W. O. Joplin, C. A. Rhodes, William Buehler, J. R. Wainwright, Miss E. Latham, Miss A. Ripy and Mrs. F. G. Hogan.

R. P. Brooks, who trains the string of W. F. Schulte, the Louisville turfman, is one of the most versatile horsemen in Kentucky. He rides most of the horses he handles in their fastest trials, and acts as a veterinarian if any member of his stable gets siek. He knows a horse thoroughly, and no trainer has anything on him when it comes to getting an old cripple to the races.

Horsemen fancy the chestnut colt Politeness, a two-year-old that Lon Jones brought to the Downs from the National Stock Farm a few days ago. He is in the Bashford Manor and Juvenile Stakes, Politeness was bred by Col. E. F. Clay, chairman of the Kentucky State Racing Commission, and Gallaher Bros, bought him last fall as a yearling for $360. A few days later Mr. Jones saw him and, taking a fancy to the youngster, bought him for $500. Politeness won't be long winning his purchase price if looks go for anything.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

O. G., Chicago Heighths, Ill. Ballyhoo Bey never raced over the Garfield Park track.

Max Y., Chicago, Nimbus defeated Priscillian in a mile and an eighth race at Sheepshead Bay July 4, 1910, winning with 109 pounds up, while Pris-cillian, with 123, ran unplaced.

A. W. New Albany, Ind. A. having made two parlays with Dorbic in each and then telephoned to have another horse taken out of the parlay, in which borbic figured, indicated the parlay in which the horse ordered out was a factor, presuming that it also was not in both parlays.

STATISTICS OF THE LEXINGTON MEETING.

The spring meeting of the Kentucky Association, which opened at Lexington April 27, and came to a close yesterday, embraced eleven racing days, during which sixty-seven races were run and $30,920 was distributed in stakes and purses. Winner—B, m, by Hastings—Fidena (trained by W. H. Bradford).
Went to post at 4:28. At post 2 minutes. Start good and slow. Won cantering; second and third driving. FiGENT ran into the lead on the backstretch and, drawing far away, won in a canter. GELICO came steadily from the rear and outstayed GUS HARTRIDGE for second place. The latter followed the pacemakers in closest pursuit to the stretch and tired in the last furiog. REENE W. made the early pace, but failed to stay. ROBERTA ran well to the stretch and retired. NARFI ran poorly.

2248 SIXTH RACE—1 Mile, (98268—1:40½—4—97.) Purse $300. 4-year-olds and upward, Selling. Net value to winner $225; second, $50; third, $25.

Winter—Ch. f, by Aeronaut—Litigant (trained by J. S. Healy).

Went to post at 3:05. At post 3 minutes. Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. LAWSUIT ran into a good lead quickly and kept it for a half mile, but was tiring at the end.

21ARY SCRIBE began slowly, but closed up rapidly in the stretch and was wearing the winner down at the finish, SMASH was off forwardly and a close contender all the way. MICCOSUKEE was off in a tangle and finished fast. CADEAU showed speed.

Scratched—Tumble, 111; 2078 Beth Stanley, 107.

2238 SECOND RACE—34 Mile. (95722—1:12—6—124.) $500 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling. Net value to winner $415; second, $75; third, $50.

Winner—B. g, by Ben Strome—Rose Leaf (trained by J. Fitzsimmons).

Went to post at 3:33. At post 2 minutes. Start good and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. ROSSEAUX was hustled to the front in the first sixteenth and, under pressure, led all the way, carried his weight well and outgamed QUEEN BEE in the final drive. The latter moved up with a game challenge on the stretch turn and appeared to have the winner beaten at the furlong post, but tired slightly in the final strides. FATHEROLA was always a forward contender, but was tiring at the end and just lasted long enough to beat the fast gaining SILAS GRUMP. The latter ran a good race and finished gamely. DR. BARKLEY finished well.

Overweights—Silas Grump, 1 pound.

Equivalent booking odds—Mockler, 470 to 100 straight, 165 to 100 place, 100 to 100 show; Brig, 105 to 100 place, 65 to 100 show; Joe Delboid, 100 to 100 show.

Winner—B. c, by Sain—Theresia (trained by J. C. Cahn).

Went to post at 4:00. At post 2 minutes. Start fair and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. MOCKLER, well ridden, but suffering from interference in the early running, moved up fast in the stretch and outstayed BRIG in a close finish. The latter was much the best and ran a good race, but succumbed only through his rider's inexperience. JOE DEIBOLD ran fairly well, but was a distant third. JABOT was also a sufferer from interference, but ran poorly. COPPERTOWN quit badly in the last quarter. TILLIE'S NIGHTMARE quit abruptly after setting the early pace.

2235 FIFTH RACE—4 1-2 Furlongs, (95719—53%—2—115.) Purse $400. 2-year-olds. Allowances. Net value to winner $300; second, $75; third, $25.
